

WRREA works at the ground level and:

- Provides the community with a Rescue and Rehabilitation Service Centre for Australian Fauna;
- Raises funds to support the rescue, rehabilitation and research of Australian Fauna;
- Provides for volunteer educators for of the wider community about Australian Fauna, the human-wildlife relations, health and welfare;
- Provides support for researchers of Australian Fauna;
- Provides 24-hour support network for orphaned and injured wildlife.